

WINE LIST

Wine

White:

Ca di Ponti Grillo Italy

G £4.75 B £17.00

Mineral loveliness with a little more, just, something about it. Sicily's best grape variety and a cracking wine.

False Bay Chardonnay South Africa

G £5.00 B £18.00

Un-oaked, textured, bright loveliness. A wine which perfectly balances 'come get me' fruitiness with elegance and restraint.

Adobe Reserve Gewurztraminer Chile

G:5.50 B £20.00

Come on, don't be scared, this is a wine to revel in, to indulge in, to let your taste buds have a bit of a workout. Organic Gewurztraminer from one of the most forward thinking producers in Chile. Aromatic, floral and enticing on the nose, the palate tones down some of the expected richness in favour of a fresher approach than its Alsace cousins. Utterly, utterly delicious and terrific with something just a little spicier.

Vignobles Brumont Gros Manseng Sauvignon France

B £23.00

This is an amazing wine from a winemaker who is regarded as one of the very best in the whole of France! Using indigenous grapes it shows just how good wines from the Gascogne region can be. Spiky and fresh but rich and complex too.

Chateau la Bastide Corbieres Blanc France

B £23.50

It may be getting a little colder and the days are getting shorter but you can still catch the last traces of summer in this delightful wine. I'd tell you the grape varieties but that would just make things confusing so just enjoy it's purity of fruit character and breezy freshness a knockout wine.

Red:

Fauno Grenache Shiraz Mourvedre Spain

£4.75 B £17.00

Super soft, approachable, quaffable Spanish red which will warm the cockles of your heart.

False Bay Old School Shiraz South Africa

G £5.00 B £18.50

A full yet elegant Shiraz brimming with fresh lifted berry fruit, bramble, cream, cassis and black cherry flavours. Well structured and with a long, rich finish.

Honore de Berticot Merlot France

G: 5.50 B £20.00

A ripe, fresh, juicy, crunchy Merlot from the Cotes du Duras region just south-east of Bordeaux. This is a little frivolous joy of a wine with all the lovely ripe, juicy plum fruit allowed to really shine. Uncomplicated and joyful this is a wine which was made for enjoying with food.

Roger Sabon Le Sabounnet France

B £21.00

This wine is a little treat and a little different too. It's a multi vintage blend from one of the best producers of Chateauneuf du Pape. This is his everyday homage to that mighty wine and it's terrific. An earthy, rustic, fresh, flavour filled, heart warming wonder of a drop. Great with something nice and hearty.

Domaine Andre Colonge Beaujolais Villages France

B £23.00

There are few things more enjoyable than a really good bottle of Beaujolais. The perfect accompaniment to a steak or some duck or a plate of wonderfully ripe cheese. Awash with black cherry, fruity freshness and background notes of fresh rainfall on slate with a sappy, juicy acidity which keeps the palate perky.

Rose:

False Bay Wild Yeast Rose South Africa

G: 5.00 B:17.00

Using wild yeasts results in a slower fermentation which then adds lovely layers of texture. That silky mouthfeel is combined with delicate red fruit flavours and little savoury notes to make a rose which is crying out to be enjoyed with a plate of olives and meats.
